

Cowichan United Way

*Our Vision...Your Action
Maximum Impact*

August 22, 2005

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Thank you Staples Business Depot!

Cowichan United Way would like to thank Jeff Forsyth, General Manager of Staples Business Depot in Duncan and their customers for donating supplies to local art programs.

Over the last few months, Staples customers bought art supplies and deposited them in a bin to donate to therapeutic programs run by Big Brothers Big Sisters of Cowichan Valley, Cowichan Family Life Association for their Alexander Family Resource Centre, Cowichan Seniors Advisory Society, and HIIE'YULEUM (House of Friendship) Society.

These programs provide interactive activities for all ages, enriching the lives of children, seniors and adults as well as the lives of everyone who witnesses the pleasure they experience.

Cowichan United Way and community partners like Staples Business Depot, help build a strong support network for our local citizens.

Thank you for making a difference!

-30-

For more information contact:

Sheryl Baugh-Allen, Executive Director
Cowichan United Way
Direct (250) 748-5689
sheryl@cowichan.unitedway.ca

*Cowichan United Way makes a difference in the lives of over 30,000
Cowichan residents, supporting over 90 local programs and services.
We are all pieces of the same puzzle. It takes us all to complete the picture.*

COWICHAN UNITED WAY
Suite #300 – 394 Duncan Street
Duncan, British Columbia V9L 3W4
Phone (250) 748-1312 • Fax (250) 748-7652
office@cowichan.unitedway.ca • www.cowichan.unitedway.ca